Not illustrated. 1852 Excerpt: . . . The Augustan age and the imperial system were the sure precursors of the Lower Empire. Absolute despotism is murder in the palace, rebellion in the camp, demoralization and degeneracy in the nation, domestic sloth, slavery, and subjugation. It is Livia and Messalina--Tiberius and Caracalla--Augustulus and the Barbarians. The era of the Cresars, which we see to-day, was hatched-in conspiracy, baptized in blood, mounted by bribery, sanctified by blasphemy, and sustained by force. It sprung from perjury to march by lies. It proscribes capacity, denounces independence, damns intelligence, and strangles liberty. Its conditions of existence are the ignorance of the masses, the obedience of the sword, and the lasting domination of hypocrisy, superstition, and corruption. A military revolution, its cry must be to arms, and its destiny is either mutiny or war. There is a class of Politicians who ignore history, despise the past, and...
