Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Children of the Bible Four years ago I went South for the first time, meeting in the rare old city of New Orleans, the author of this little book, who is a native of Louisiana. Her bright mind, warm heart, and confiding manners won my sincere interest and sympathy. She was literally alone in the world, except for the atmosphere of Christian kindness and goodwill that must ever surround an earnest and genuine young woman in the Church of Christ. The dearest wish of my Southern friend was to visit Chautauqua, that grand People s University, which annually attracts one hundred thousand visitors. Miss Armstrong was a student of the C. L. S. C., and as I had long known Dr. Vincent, and honored him for his generous heart, no less than his great work, I wrote him of my little Southron, whom he made welcome to a summer home in that beautiful resort. Since then she has lived at the North; is a newspaper correspondent and stenographer, whose brave efforts for self-help have deeply enlisted my sympathies.
