Attention, Americanization Teachers The Supervisor of Evening Schools announces that preference in appointments to teaching positions in the Americanization classes of the evening schools next winter will be given to applicants who have had the prescribed one hour training in the subject of teaching English to foreigners. It should be understood by any who, due to a shortage of teachers, receive appointments without having completed training, that they are appointed conditionally and are subject to removal in favor of trained teachers at any time. The attention of both new applicants and teachers who were in the work during th- past winter and who lack the required training is called to the opportunity afforded In the courses to be given by the Detroit Teachers College summer school. The course covers six weeks. Classes will meet between 9 and 12 a. m. Inquire at the Teachers College for particulars. It is probable that there will be a number of openings for teachers who ocomplete the summer course. ONE WAY TO DEAL WITH IMMIGRANTS By...
