B-283788 The primary functional requirements of the postfiling burden model are Fundamental Decisions on the ability to the Design of the Postfiling Model Remain to Be Made estimate the change in burden due to changing factors, such as the number of audits IRS undertakes; 17 disaggregate burden estimates by postfiling segment and by taxpayer activity; and link to the prefiling filing burden model. Fundamental decisions remain to be made regarding the operational design of the postfiling model. A report that presents PwCs broad conceptual design for the model notes that PwC and IRS need to agree on specific interpretations of the general requirements that were set by the contracts scope of work. The report also indicates that the ultimate functionality of the model may be constrained by the limitations of IRS data systems. For example, IRS has no database that tracks the activities of individual taxpayers throughout the entire postfiling process. This may prevent...
