THE SHERIFFDOM OF TARBERT. SN such lawless and turbulent times as those we have been referring to, the difficulty in administering the law was in no district felt to such an extent as in that embraced in the present shire of Argyll. The large area which it covers, the diversified character of the country, and the inclusion within it of so many islands, would indeed at that time have made the task an almost impossible one. As a result of this, we find that at the period we have been referring to, the northern portions were attached to the shire of Inverness, the central and larger portion of the mainland constituted the Sheriffdom of Lorne or Argyll, and the remainder was formed into the shire or Sheriffdom of Tarbert. Eegarding the date of formation of the shire of Tarbert, it cannot...
