Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. (Lk 23:34) O loving tenderness of Jesus towards men! St. Augustine says that when the Savior was injured by His enemies, He besought pardon for them; for he thought not so much of the injuries He received from them, and the death they inflicted upon Him, as upon the love which brought Him to die for them. But some may say, Why did Jesus pray to the Father to pardon them, when He Himself could have forgiven their injuries? St. Bernard replies that He prayed to the Father, not because He could not Himself forgive them, but that He might teach us to pray for them that persecute us. The holy abbot says also in another place: O wonderful thing! He cries, Forgive; they cry, Crucify. Arnold of Chartres remarks that while Jesus was laboring to save the Jews, they were laboring to destroy themselves; but the love of the Son had more power with God than the blindness of this ungrateful people. St. Cyprian writes, Even he who sheds the blood of Christ is made to live by the blood of Christ. Jesus Christ, in dying, had so great a desire to save all men, that He made even those enemies who shed His blood with torments partakers of that blood. How can you look, says St. Augustine, at your God upon his cross; see how He prays for them that crucify Him; and then deny pardon to your brother who has offended you! St. Leo writes that it was through this prayer of Christ so that many thousands of Jews were converted at...
