By Trystan Mickel Windemier

America Star Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tyler Aaron Belmont grew up in a Christian household, helping his father with the farm chores. From an early age Tyler was attracted to males and male anatomy. Andrew Aidan DiPree was gay all his life, bouncing from foster home to foster home. During the ordeals of his childhood he is mentally, sexually, emotionally, and physically abused. Tyler acquires a job in Aurora and must move there. He meets Andrew on the bus to Aurora and agrees to become his roommate. There is an instantaneous attraction to Andrew by Tyler and vice versa. Trystan was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and raised in rural Cedar Springs, Michigan. He attended public schools in Cedar Springs and he graduated valedictorian from the local high school in 1986. During his school years Trystan enjoyed writing. He worked on the yearbook in high school. He volunteered at the local nursing home playing the piano, and served as young teen director at his church for two years. Trystan worked five years in a tool and die shop. He wrote many editorials...
