The plot twists and turns, the action moving from Moscow to the London social circuit, from the Russian President to the Mafia, the battlefields of Chechnya to a Kremlin coup. Things are not what they seem; each player has his own private agenda; and the reader is kept guessing until the very end. Snow falls in Moscow.a speeding car is stopped by the police in the early hours; a young man, Ivan Ossinsky, is arrested after drugs are found in his car. In London Ivan s father Boris, a senior diplomat, gets a visit. A mysterious man has got Ivan released on bail - but he wants something in return. Either Boris helps, or his son goes to jail. Boris realises that he has been set up by the Russian mafia: but why? Desperate, he turns to his friend, media magnate Jeremy Goldberg, who finances a daring operation to save Ivan. A team of former professionals meets up in Moscow. But from day one their cover is blown and the former KGB is on to them. mysterious London file that makes them suspect that something very sinister is about to happen in the British capital. The team returns to London. It soon becomes clear that Boris and Ivan are pawns in a huge international conspiracy, masterminded by the feared Moscow gangster known as the Crow, and involving top people from the Kremlin. The tension builds to a shattering climax, with guns blazing in Kensington.
